

Making & Breaking

The comfort and satisfaction I get from making and eating bread stems from a long journey with many memories along the way. To me, it means comfort, satisfaction, sharing, connection, love and of course the joy you receive from the actual eating of bread.

Just Down the Road

ricotta, delicata pumpkin, caramelized carrot

Many miles have been travelled, and countless hours have been spent during my ongoing quest to find the very best of British producers to supply Muse with ingredients. We celebrate Old Hall Farm as one of them, because it's just down the road from where I grew up in Norfolk.

As Nature Intended

sea bass, tomato, aubergine

As summer fades into autumn, the kitchen turns to deeper, more grounded flavours. This dish reflects the warmth and simplicity of the season — bold yet restrained, with each element given space to shine.

Taste of Home

pear, pine, oats

As a child I was always playing outside, running through fields of grains, the pine fragrance of a forest walk, even the lingering smell of my father's Sunday garden bonfires. This dish is a celebration and representation of my home surroundings.

Our dishes are cooked fresh to order, in an environment where nuts and shellfish are present.
