Forever Picking

Snacks inspired by the seasons. This stems from my recollection of being in the garden with my mother and picking anything that was edible.

Making & Breaking

The comfort and satisfaction I get from making and eating bread stems from a long journey with many memories along the way. To me, it means comfort, satisfaction, sharing, connection, love and of course the joy you receive from the actual eating of bread.

Any Favourites ?

Beef, Onion, Turnip

You ask any chef what their favourite food is, and they will take you on a trip down memory lane. I will always remember Pierre Koffmann eating his steak tartare with a very crisp baguette and a fried egg. What's your favourite treat at this time of the year?

The Essence

Beetroot, Horseradish, Blackberry

Taking a single ingredient's flavour and searching for its true essence, then developing a truly refined and unique taste. We all have our favourite flavours, and this beet flavour is one of mine.

Patience is a Virtue

Seabass, Grains, Salsify

Learning to be patient can be very difficult, and one I've had to battle throughout my career! The common Seabass has a surprisingly long-life span of 25-40 years obviously if they are not caught, Therefore patience is a must.

Dear, Oh Lovely Deer

Venison, Cabbage, Clementine

These lovely beasts come from Lake District, feeding off the land and roaming around on the rolling hills, which gives them a deeper richer flavour, giving us the best tasting deer.

Wait And See

Rice, Chocolate, Citrus

When Tom was much younger, he was a little impatient when asking "what's for dessert?" His mother would always respond wait & see... All I will say is that it is a sweet, seasonal delight!

Comfort of Home

Pear, Pine, Oats

As a child I was always playing outside, running through fields of grains, the pine fragrance of a forest walk, even the lingering smell of my father's Sunday garden bonfires. This dish is a celebration and representation of my home surroundings.
