

Forever Picking

Snacks inspired by the seasons. This stems from my recollection of being in the garden with my mother and picking anything that was edible.

Making & Breaking

The comfort and satisfaction I get from making and eating bread stems from a long journey with many memories along the way. To me, it means comfort, satisfaction, sharing, connection, love and of course the joy you receive from the actual eating of bread.

Down to Earth

Celeriac, Truffle, Mushroom

I have always been fascinated by this wonderful vegetable due to its simple earthy flavour that is matched by no other. It can reach deep umami bomb flavours, as well as being as light as a butterfly.

Our dishes are cooked fresh to order, in an environment where nuts and shellfish are present.

Never Ending Time

Squid, Fennel, Kombu

However simple a dish may look, the time it takes to prepare it can go unnoticed. I would always say savour, not devour. Many hours disappear in the preparing and cooking of the squid, and days have been spent perfecting.

Dear, Oh Lovely Deer

Venison, Cabbage, Clementine

These lovely beasts come from Lake District, feeding off the land and roaming around on the rolling hills, which gives them a deeper richer flavour, giving us the best tasting deer.

Comfort of Home

Pear, Pine, Oats

As a child I was always playing outside, running through fields of grains, the pine fragrance of a forest walk, even the lingering smell of my father's Sunday garden bonfires. This dish is a celebration and representation of my home surroundings.
