

Forever Picking

Snacks inspired by the seasons. This stems from my recollection of being in the garden with my mother and picking anything that was edible.

Making & Breaking

The comfort and satisfaction I get from making and eating bread stems from a long journey with many memories along the way. To me, it means comfort, satisfaction, sharing, connection, love and of course the joy you receive from the actual eating of bread.

Just Down the Road

Ricotta, Fig, Broad Bean

Many miles have been travelled, and countless hours have been spent during my ongoing quest to find the very best of British producers to supply Muse with ingredients. We celebrate Old Hall Farm as one of them, because it's just down the road from where I grew up in Norfolk.

Our dishes are cooked fresh to order, in an environment where nuts and shellfish are present.

The Love Affair Continues

Turbot, Duck Confit, Mash

France has always been very close to my heart. I have spent a lot of time travelling and working in France, as well as the wine regions of the south, [slowly but surely] developing my love affair with food. This continued working alongside a few great French chefs, this is a dish that comes from my love for French gastronomy.

Keep it in the Family

Guinea Fowl, Peach, Beans

The very first time I ate this dish was at my mother in law's home in the sunny foothills of Provence over 15 years ago. It looked like a very simple dish but the combination of flavours from the peach, Beaume de Venise and guinea fowl was incredible. It's a secret family recipe and one that I am very glad to have...

Pick 'n' eat

Strawberry, Sticky Rice, Thai Basil

As a child, I remember the first taste of summer with beautiful, sweet strawberries laid out in long rows ready to be picked, filling your basket as much as you like, or in my case my mouth! Sweet summer memories of family outings are forever embedded, and we hope this dish leaves you with a memorable one with an Asian twist.
